

SWITZERLAND

by Karl Lennartz

Eight athletes from Switzerland took part, six of them shooters, who were very successful.

Team Leader: Marcel GUINAND, Alois NAVILLE

Athletics: A. TOBLER

Cycling: Ernst MEYER, Hans STUDER

Snooting: Alfred GRÜTTER, Marcel MEYER de STADELHOFEN, Jean REICH, Louis Marcel RICHARDET, Konrad STÄHELI, Caspar WIDMER

With their team they won the free rifle, 300 meters, three positions. Louis-Marcel RICHARDET won with the military rifle, 300 meters, kneeling or standing ahead of his compatriot Jean REICH. He also won the competition over 20 meters with the military revolver and was second with the military rifle, 1873-1874 gras model, 200 meters, kneeling or standing. Some of the Swiss marksmen were similarly successful at the 1900 Olympic Games in Paris (5 gold medals, 1 silver, 1 bronze).

Shooting took place at Kallithea (above) where Swiss marksmen celebrated their successes

	300m M. Rifle Team	300m M. Rifle Indiv.	200m A. Rifle Indiv.	300m Fr. Rifle Indiv.	20 m M. Rev. Indiv.	20 m M.R. Gr. Indiv.	25 m Fr. Pist. Indiv	50 m F. Pist. Indiv.
Grütter	1			23
Stadelhofen	1	7	28	1	30	dnf	19	15
Reich	1	2	3	22	18	27	25	25
Richardet	1	1	2	10	1	7	4	13
Stäheli	1	24		2	4	12		4
Widmer		14		15		23		17

Swiss placings in Kallithea

Visiting the old marble memories of ancient Greece

